

SHORT-RANGE PITFALLS OF OBAMORAMA!

Reviewing the address of Barack Obama to the joint-session of US Congress last night (February 24, 2009), plus the various media teams and other forums commenting on the speech, including such networks as CNN, BBC, SKY, Ostankino – 1 (Moscow) and media commentary on the in the press on the Web this morning such as Washington Post, Harold Tribune (Paris), the Independent (London) et al; weary-eyed, since for us on the continent it was already past 6 AM this morning, my off-the cuff brief commentary is as follows:

>>>>I had just commented the day before on our Tinsel Town the OSCAR Academy Awards, the once robust "Rambo Town USA", lost its lust in form & content of the American pop culture; the event was pedestrian and banal and pointless... The No. 1 "voice of America" (Hollywood) to the world at large, which we still insist in "leading" the world (and God only knows why, except for self-assumed, self-appointed, and brutally enforced leadership, short of capitulation bombed into compliance by the USAF/RAF) fell flat on its 'barbarain' and culturally horizontal face in just one-year's time over the 2008 Oscar Academy Awards ceremony... But for the American Shah Penn, it was a Minorities-Panorama show, disclosing to the world at large how quickly 2008, the predicted year of the American financial fall and decline from posturing grace had arrived and passed its judgment on the Prairie nation-state still in diapers vis a vis such an ancient nation-state undergoing American conquest – Babylonia, the 5000-year old nation state!

OBAMA's pronouncements last night were all long-range, not a single short-range solution in how to reverse the moribund course of domestic much less international economics caused by our American commercial, financial, and empire-building glut, indeed, plans of mice & men as the prolific writer John Steinbeck once wrote about his weak and meek heroes in the West.

Let's remind ourselves: in just 35 days of Oval Office tenure Obama has committed $3,5 trillion dollars of funds which the American Treasury has not, hence it all has to be borrowed or falsely printed, only to usher in, really, the irreversible inflation... Moreover, not a single visible and verifiable plan laid out in how to bankroll and place under control the banking industry, while firing the imagination of the military-industrial complex and its military establishment, how they would still be in charge by making war around the adversely affected planetary meridians by American foreign policy and manipulation, use and abuse of financial markets every since 1947, when empire-building was launched in earnest over the Cold War gaming prospects?

I'm telling 'ya folks Obama is a bummer, without class, proper upbringing, notational roots and crucially no professional team to back him up; the Obama Cabinet is a sham, "more of the same" and nothing of the new CHANGE... Where are all those men and women of wisdom and knowledge and vitality, plus a Council of Elders to temper not to tamper with the Philosopher-King of Plato's conceptual origin that such dire times require--men of wisdom to oversee the development of a newer international world order? Nowhere in sight: America is a pop culture, and a racial melting pot of hodge-podge origins, divergent mentalities and often uncom-promising mindsets, ruled over by an iron fist of the Oriental Goth, for the American ruling establishment is strictly Germanic in origin populating the northwestern crescent or Europe, arriving on the continent in AD9; when this barbarian destroyed Rome in 475AD, and took over the leadership of WesternCiv... That's how We, continentals, now got "more of the same" U.S. legitimized-illegitimacy among the community of a much older, experienced and literate community of nations.

Moreover, it's only a matter of time before other nations get up the courage to censure the excesses of Pax Americana. No more confidence in the system, wholesale investments, bank deposits, and backing of its mindless sanctions imposed against the weak and meek nations, and military adventures around the world. In fact, what awaits our nation are severe sanctions, war reparations and the like for the kind of adventurism Germany was censured in WW-I and WW-II, although after the Second World War we launched the Marshall Plan and absolved our brethren of any responsibility, for a worldwide conflict which cost the planetary meridians over 50 million people...

Surely, Arnold Toynbee's 1961 postulate said it all: Of the twenty-two civilizations that have appeared in history, nineteen of them collapsed when they reached the moral state the United States is in now!
