

POWER POLITICS REPLETE!

Obama's speech to the nation was delivered at the West Point Military Academy (December 1, 2009); no doubt it's the "straw that broke the camel's back", power politics replete by the Washington-London "power elite," something I've been harping all along for decades on end...

I stood here amazed as I gazed at the CNN delivery, with Michael Wade, the Australian journalist on the CNN staff in Afghanistan, explaining to the public where the war was and where it was not going, pointing to southeastern Afghanistan, bordering on Pakistan, the rugged terrain where no sane military strategist would ever-never fight a war, even though our Black American president called it his "strategy and tactics", the fail-safe point of no return, as one late Eugene Burdick from Sheldon, Iowa, would have said it, but he died on the parapets of criticism...dating as far back as 1958.

For those of you who are younger or don't read such materials, i.e. prof. Burdick was killed by the Washington Ruling Elite for writing such books, not the least: The Ugly American (he was an American political scientist and co-author of The Ugly American, 1958), with William Lederer; Fail-Safe (1962), with Harvey Wheeler; and the solo novel The 480 (1964), which was the 'last straw' for him too, falling pray to the so-called blue series of pricks to the neck, which were not then traceable by the coroners (as usual declared a "heart attack"); the typically announced heart attack Bill Casey (director of CIA) died from but with a "neospheric" high-tech hit on his DNA code, March 6, 1987 (of course, secret technology); not surprisingly the night before he was to appear under oath before the Senate Hearings on IranGate, which would have dismantled the Regan administration, the president impeached! Please note: no one is immune in DC before the powers that be, the forces of evil power politics... In fact, everyone is expendable, disposable in the posturing "consumer society," created by the same ruling elite... There's no end to this asinine 'gaming' until WesternCiv hopefuls put their foot down (the besieged democratic France and Germany), or other powerful forces take the elite to task, but those could only come from continental Russia, Occidental China and India. However, if the Washington-London elite pursues Islam in order to dominate it and—hence change it—it will lose power, mark my words!

Prof. Burdick died playing tennis on the parking lot below Shattuck Ave., where I used to park my TR-3 sports car in those days, as he did his Jaguar, while on the Berkeley Campus...As I climbed the stairs to the concrete flat roof (with tennis courts) laid out over the huge parking area (below), I noticed the commotion around the victim and the nearby observers, for me (vis a vis my Washington background) it was clear what happened, but of course I kept silent, for years in fact...). The ways and means of the Washington Ruling Elite were even then clear to some of us on campus, e.g. of the 10,000 Blacks in the Panther's organization, headquartered in Oakland CA, most of them were eliminated in one way or another by the FBI task force squads (1963-1965), including Huey P. Newton, a co-founder of the Black Panther Party and a leader of a generation of militant blacks in the 1960's. He was finally shot to death in 1989; the only lasting symbol of that generation of Blacks. Prof. Sheldon S. Wolin should have written his "Inverted Totalitarianism" volume back then, when it would have counted, but then like most of the staff he liked his treasured and relatively well paid lecturing position on the famous campus. It's unfortunate is it not that Wolin's exquisite volume arrives as late as last year – 2008? And, of course, his once colleague, prof. Chalmers Johnson's "blowback" trio Johnny-cum lately apologia, the academic wolves changing their winter coat so damn late in the game; the latter in fact a CIA consultant in his early years on the Berkeley campus, legitimizing we can assume the Watergate stonewalling Imperium and similar obduracy concepts of the ruling elite, if not the earlier Vietnam conflict in progress at the time nor are these two academics alone, the entire American Intelligentsia was/is silenced... Imagine, members of the Intelligentsia tacitly or indirectly approving Elite excesses!

The 480 is a political fiction novel with the plot evolving around the political turmoil after John F. Kennedy assassination in 1963. The novel criticizes the Ruling Elite, for using Big computers to run massive simulations, with adverse sociopolitical effects on society at large, which predict the public reaction to certain (proposed) political moves before implementing them. Such simulations make it easy to manipulate the public consciousness, which in fact we witnessed last night in the Obama address to the nation. Notice the double-do, and double-speak, i.e. both the increase in troops (the 30,000 troops en route to Afghanistan), and the 18 months limitation imposed hence, withdrawal which is a physical impossibility, but the computer runs (of Burdick's fame) told the speech writers that it will have the desired effect of approval not only by the domestic public but the world at large, despite the contradiction in form caused by the Nobel Peace Prize and outright war at the same time... Therefrom certain appeasing phrases to the Arabs and Islamic religion, how we Americans wish not to dominate but ONLY help, was directed to the Children of the Prophet on whom we have in fact declared a hot Global War to stave the spread of Islam around the global meridians, which may not be a misnomer in view of the archaic feudal faith, but over the bodies of our American "killing fields," if for no other reason that barbarian religion must recognize women, to say the least before those Islamic nations join a newer, emerging world order... Notice the rumbling Referendum in Switzerland; no mosques to be built on Calvinist territory... In addition, Herman van Rompuy, the new EU president, declares indeed before his appointment, that no Turkey will be accepted in the European Community.

If you read the 480 volume the title denotes the number of groups (by party affiliation, social-economic status, location, origin, etc.) that the computer simulation uses to classify the American electorate. The full list of these is reproduced in the Appendix, claimed by the author to be the true list used by the Simulmatics Corporation (real name) in Senator John F. Kennedy's presidential campaign in 1960, even though he proved to be a disappointment to them? The cover features an IBM 5081 punch card... The 480 fictive analysis, for those long gone days of the still 'secretive' early 1960s told the CIA, how much the political scientist was into things what was in their domain of control and domination of the public at large at home and abroad. Titles such as the Ugly American, Fail-safe, and The 480 said enough to the ruling elite, even if they had not read the exquisite analyses, how there was a "clear and present danger" emanating from the Berkeley Campus, with the FSM student revolt already aloft, that at least one of the perceptive professors had gone beyond his very own "fail-safe" point of no return!

To put it graphically, Obama's finale would have been more heroic for him to bend over and stick his head between his legs and kiss his ass "goodbye" – the CHANGE presidential campaign platform is now kaput; there's no point in being a puppet for the hawks! For his information, the Al Qaeda is not in Afghanistan but in Pakistan (and Iran), where the Taliban conscripts come from as well as military equipment, if not strategy & tactics. Of course, Iran and Red China are making billions on arms deliveries, the funds paid by Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, UAE, Indonesia, Bahrain, Syria, even Libya, Jordan and many many other Islamic donors... In addition, we all should think about it, how the ol' Mecca & Medina cavalcade is behind the unilateral effort, wherever Islam is located, including the Persian Gulf or the Gulf of Arabe as the faithful call it... I'm not particularly enamored with Islam, the feudal, archaic religion – far from it, but Max Weber's Protestant Capitalism is no match for it! Read my lips as Bush Sr. used to say it...

Saladin must be laughing in his grave, how the "lessons of history" are never learned by the aggressor, be it Pax Americana, and especially so... The same Anglo-Saxon elite which met Saladin's Assassins in Lebanon, and recently all over the Islamic world, be it the self-destructive type of modern bombers, which our American Stealth bombers cannot stamp out. Unconventional Warfare is an altogether different ballgame, which the Limey-Yankee elite cannot handle! Lessons not learned by these modern day crusaders for profit not democracy or in the name of Human Rights, with so many killings fields all over the planetary meridians.

The British should know better than forget their lessons of history. Let us recall how the Viceroy of India, Lord Bruce, who negotiated the 1894 Peace Agreement with Afghanistan, which called for the removal of empire troops from the country via the Khyber Pass, where all 14,000 officers and troopers were massacred to the last man, with no passage for the wicked, eh! Needless to underscore, they were back in Afghanistan even in this ongoing conflict, almost the same number of fighting men, who may also never see their homeland for their leadership's indulgence, one Gordon Brown, the Premier; he preceded our President with his diatribe to the House of Commons in London... The same quiet preparation went into his address to the more astute UK public using the same Big Mac computers, simulations galore to bamboozle the public.

My message is very simple: 10,000 British and 100,000 American troops will not pacify the incredible crags, valleys, mountain peaks and pamirs of Afghanistan nor the 60 Pashtun historical and tempered tribes now populating southeastern Afghanistan and northwestern Pakistan, where the (in)famous Khyber Rifles met their maker 115 years ago, which only confirms our charge that the Anglo-Saxon dogs of war simply have no memory of the past nor sense of chivalry, heraldry and the 'heroic' likes of long gone days, e.g. of one Battle of Troy... Not even the high-tech systems will help on the territory nor change the will of the Pashtun guerrilla warfare. There are an estimated 7,500,000 Pashtun in Afghanistan and 14,000,000 in Pakistan, plus a mosaic of other Islamic tribe's fighters. If we can imagine of the 34 provinces in Afghanistan only one (Kabul) is in control of Mr. Karzai's government, where the local ruling elite, such as it is--is guarding this quizzling head of state. No one, we the British and Americans or the defunct Afghan army are in control of the rebel forces, or forces for National Liberation of Afghanistan punctuating the entire region but for one usual province, the capital, where the elite lives!

The mujahideen (call them "Taliban", it's irrelevant how we name the American opposition, when we're the robber barons, bombing, stealing maiming the 'innocents') in those forlks are in fact "freedom fighters"; we Americans and the British are occupiers for profit and dominance, even though most experts have yet to figure out what is there to profit except for the cost of professional armies deployed in the region by our Yankee-Limey tandem elite which is garnishing massive resources from the national treasuries of those weak and meek nations for our expenses (men & material) at Cost + 40% profit, the WW-II pricing practice, i.e. it pays to make war. Besides, occupied or allied nations must contribute to the American war effort, material, financial and human resources, servicing some 700 American military installations abroad... In addition, perhaps the narcomafia must be in the game, where the poppy grows galore for that relatively prolific product nowadays (we live in the Time of Troubles again), perhaps even profitable for the engaged armies or their officer corps, tsk!

If our Black American new strategist or Chief Executive understands speech-making to the enemy you want to defeat, don't tell him when you're going to withdraw, if you're announcing attack on the military front... Moreover, a clear-cut military front is what the West Point strategists need NOT the hill-top enclaves of Vietnam, or a hit and miss struggle on the Pashtuni impossible terrain, indeed, if any strategist could now deploy a full-proof front on that terrain, which I have personally traipsed decades ago, even before the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan.

Finally, it would behoove the hawks (if that's what they're fighting for—for the interests of that "sacred cow" of National Security), to send an abbreviated blitzkrieg military task force* with a team of atomic technicians to Islamabad to dismantle the nuclear wherewithal of that so-called nation-state, which we Americans helped to sever from India, including the approval if not direct technical assistance to bolster the nuclear capability of the Pakistani Armed Forces under General Zia Ul Haq, who was zapped by one bin Laden, whom we Americans supplied with the Stinger anti-aircraft missiles. The American Ambassador to Pakistan, Arnold L. Raphel and Brig. Gen. Herbert M. Wassom, chief of the U.S. military group in Pakistan (MAG), died with the Gen. Ul Haq aboard his presidential or military aircraft; Washington had promoted and seated the military government in Iraq, CIA masterminding the coup d'grace and death sentence of the democratically elected President Ali Bhutto; his daughter Benazir Bhutto, vying for return to her former presidency was probably murdered by the outgoing Gen. Pervez Musharraf, an American puppet, replaced by her husband Asif Ali Zardari, and her own political party, the latter nothing more than another unfortunately 'neutralized' American marionette.

*That would solve the nuclear threat for the 'conquistadoring' tandem and the rest of the world. With Iraq, if the incentive was the oil fields of Mesopotamia, then 'ell "hang in their for profit boys" and pump the pumps until Al Qaeda really moves down into the biblical Tigris and Euphrates river valleys. Good Luck! For those who care to read about the Power Elite, C. Wright Mills, William Domhoff et al expertise is attached in two attachments...But to be sure, the 30,000 extra American troops legitimizes the deployment already on the ground, including NATO allies; most of the effort supported by equipment manufactured by the American military-industrial complex, some 10,000 corporations, hence the ONLY way of improving the financial coffers of the ruling elite lot, therefore Obama's predicament of Catch-22, Joseph Heller's volume set in WW-II.

Mills' volume (below) with the publishers depicting the White House, Pentagon, Wall Street and the like power structures, or interest groups within and beyond the military-industrial complex, the Social Register, the Tinsel Town with its Rambo heroes. Therefore, it's not as if the reading public were it interested could not be informed, and there are many other forums and individuals such as yours truly, but the public is NOT a "reading public", with us Americans basically exposed to the visual media and similar propaganda, including many too many control instrumentality of power administered by the Washington bureaucracy, therefore such information rarely reaches the domestic and foreign plebs, including such representatives of the public as the Senate and Congress, while their staffs are engaged in the game, sometimes unknowingly and unwittingly as, of course, being the standard bearers they must carry out the mission of design and transmission belts of domestic and foreign policy practically invisible because of the "inverted implementation of policy which comes from the top of the Higher Powers Hierarchy (H₂O); the pyramid of power," designed such that its power lines line run from the bottom to almost the top of the power hierarchy, where the "eye" is in the one dollar bill (below).

When I speak acutely of perfidy, fraud, doublespeak and duplicity per se dished out by our Limey-Yankee lot (the London-Washington Ruling Elite), unlike other experts, I have reached a different and unpopular conclusion: it's deviant behavior, which requires a totally diverse and riskier approach to study and observation of this incorrigible social phenomenon, because inevitably it dips into the origin of man, racial types and sub-racial aggressive groups within the human family, the besieged Human Condition; the conditioning not always equal, indeed, recidivism running rampant within certain ruling circles and their administrative elites. The Gothic cavalcade gymnastics "run silent and runs deep" in the core of their genetic code; the two millennia of acculturation of the Germanic breed in the West has not been totally successful if not nonproductive, despite their decisive contribution to science and technology and philosophy in the 18-19-20th centuries, now threatening the very survival of our exotic WesternCiv!

The Power Elite is an influential book written by the American sociologist, C. Wright Mills, in 1956. In it Mills called attention to the interwoven interests of the leaders of the military, corporate, and political elements of society and suggested that the ordinary citizen was a relatively powerless subject of manipulation by those entities. The structural basis of The Power Elite was that, following World War II, the United States was the leading country in military and economic terms, already in 1947 bent on dominance; therefrom the Cold War not only to "contain" the Russian communism or proletarian internationalism but to enforce compliance of American norms and values worldwide. The book is something of a counterpart of Mills' 1951 work, White Collar: The American Middle Classes, which examined the growing role of middle managers in American society. While White Collar characterized middle managers as agents of the elite, The Power Elite did not differentiate them from the rest of the non-elite in society. A main inspiration for the book was Franz Leopold Neumann's book Behemoth: The Structure and Practice of National Socialism (1942), a study how Nazism came in position of power in a democratic state as Germany[He was drafted by Gen. Wild Bill

Donovan (OSS, to work for US government)]. Neumann had a major impact on Mills and he claimed that Behemoth had given him the "tools to grasp and analyze the entire total structure and as a warning of what could happen in a modern capitalist democracy", C. Wright Mills, Power Politics (New York: Oxford Press, 1956). This volume became a bible for the humanities practically worldwide albeit mostly among the Intelligentsia and institutions of higher learning, followed by William Domhoff and a host of other writers, among them even cultural anthropologists, while physical anthropology and genetics were ignored by design by the emerging powers that be, among the superpowers where absolute power corrupts absolutely... The academic and research gap is felt today, including migration of peoples, races and creeds...WesternCiv with its incredible vertical accomplishments is in real and present danger!Fig. For those who care to read about the Power Elite, C. Wright Mills, William Domhoff et al expertise is attached in two installments...But to be sure, the 30,000 extra American troops legitimizes the deployment already on the ground, including NATO allies; most of the effort supported by equipment manufactured by the American military-industrial complex, some 10,000 corporations, hence the ONLY way of improving the financial coffers of the ruling elite lot, therefore Obama's predicament of Catch-22, Joseph Heller's volume set in WW-II.

The reason why elitist Jeffersonian Democracy survived so long is based on Prof. Sheldon S. Wolin's astute insight in recently describing the "specter of inverted totalitarianism" (2008 pub.). The typical classical totalitarianism exercises power from the top down of the political power pyramid, issuing irreversible directives, while the Jeffersonian model, evidently learned by the 2 x 4 method of trial and error out in the prairie discovered that the best way to operate the transmission belts of sheer power is via directives issuing from the plebian base up the pyramid of power, whose apex is in the hands of the higher powers hierarchy – the Shadow Government and its military-industrial complex, thereby hiding the sharp teeth of the ruling elite and the H₂O claws of the bald eagle, the democratic myth shadowing a ‘crass’ democrassy, the judicial and policing arm of administering “real and present” control... Therefrom the real and present danger of perverted totalitarianism, the perfidy and fraud dished out to the unaware domestic plebiscite and on into the international arena of politics. Consequently, much older and just as productive and technologically advanced continental nations have been bamboozled into believing in Washington’s progressiveness, while still occupying allied nations national territories (since WW-II), with heavy-handed armed forces including the enforced, aggressive NATO infrastructure legitimizing American empire building!

RULING ELITES

"A tiny portion of the population controls the lion's share of the wealth and most of the command positions of state, manufacturing, banking, investment, publishing, higher education, philanthropy, and media... these individuals exercise a preponderant influence over what is passed off as public information and democratic discourse.

The ruling class is the politically active component of the owning class, the top captains of finance and policy who set the standards for investment and concentration of capital at home and abroad... Their overall economic domination and their campaign contributions, media monopoly, high-paid lobbyists, and public relations experts regularly predetermine who will be treated as major political candidates and which policy parameters will prevail... Though relatively few in number they get the most of what there is to get. Their wealth serves their power, and their power serves their wealth."

- Michael Parenti

PS. Of the $800 billion Obama secured from Congress to ease the financial crisis $140 billion, according to the President himself, went in to the year-end bonuses of the corporate elite.

William Domhoff argues that in the United States, power is no longer vested in the people, but rather, in a select group of upper class individuals, or, the "power elite." Mills and Domhoff are essential to understanding our wayward ruling elite, but not to the extent I have dwelled in the subject of the “causes & effects” in the hands of the Gothic abusers of power, which must have a very different answer in various disciplines, when more than 20 have to be rewritten to get to the bottom of the present predicament WesternCiv finds itself in, i.e. the American Jeffersonian elitist system is moribund with no chance of reform now threatening our very survival discussed elsewhere in my writings, some of it on my personal Website: www.profpaulcutter.com. Between group deviance and outright criminality by a wayward elite which abuses power there’s hardly a split hair on human skin, which is as tough as leather (their’s), destroying the Human Condition now at will it seems with the mouthpiece from the two heads of state (Obama & Brown), while the bureaucracy is prosecuting a war it cannot win without the downside of global disaster.

History runs deep in the minds of experts; the American-British elite back in Mesopotamia is not there because of conscious knowledge, but of deeply embedded recall of that nation-state by the host Romans—it’s from them that conquest and rape of Iraq, Iran, Pakistan and the Middle East is in-grained from imperial Rome; they’re assimilators and copy-cats never men of chivalry, wisdom and vertical endowments; our Yankee-Limey lot knows only how to make war, therefrom my charge of conflict & resolution in the Cold War trilogy. . . --PSC

WHO RULES AMERICA.NET

Power, Politics, & Social Change

By G. William Domhoff

“My book, Who Rules America?, presents detailed original information on how power and politics operate in the United States. The first edition came out in 1967 and is ranked 12th on the list of 50 best sellers in socio-logy between 1950 and 1995. A second edition, Who Rules America

Now?, arrived in 1983 and landed at #43 on the same list. Third and fourth editions followed in 1998 and 2002, and the fifth edition, upon which most of this web site is based, came out in 2006.

The sixth edition of WRA has just been released, and is available at Amazon.com (and other bookstores). This new edition has information on the rise of Barack Obama, his campaign finance supporters, and the nature of his administration. The last chapter focuses on the potential for serious challenges to class and corporate dominance. It does not have answers, but it raises the key questions and states the possibilities, noting that the strategies and tactics adopted by activists are an essential part of the power equation.

You will find the following here: supplementary information and updates for readers of WRA; an overview of the American power structure at the national level and an in-depth look at power at the local level; an over-view of the Four Networks theory of power, which provides the best general theory of power and social change within which to situate the class-domination theory I've developed specifically for the United States; commentaries on alternative theories of power; a special section on the Bohemian Club & Bohemian Grove, including pictures of the club in San Francisco and the encampment in the redwoods; suggestions for activists on what they can learn from social science research; links to Web sites and books about power and social change in the United States; and much more. You can use the menu on the left side of the page to navigate through the site.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q: So, who does rule America?

A: The owners and managers of large income-producing properties; i.e., corporations, banks, and agri-businesses. But they have plenty of help from the managers and experts they hire. You can read the essential details of the argument in this summary of Who Rules America?, or look for the book itself at Amazon.com.

Q: Do the same people rule at the local level that rule at the federal level?

A: No, not quite. The local level is dominated by the land owners and businesses related to real estate that come together as growth coalitions, making cities into growth machines.

Q: Do they rule secretly from behind the scenes, as a conspiracy?

A: No, conspiracy theories are wrong, though it's true that some corporate leaders lie and steal, and that some government officials try to keep things secret (but usually fail).

Q: Then how do they rule?

A: That's a complicated story, but the short answer is through open and direct involvement in policy planning, through participation in political campaigns and elections, and through appointments to key decision-making positions in government.

Q: Are you saying that elections don't matter?

A: No, but they usually matter a lot less than they could, and a lot less in America than they do in other industrialized democracies. That's because of the nature of the electoral rules and the unique history of the South.

Q: Does social science research have anything useful to say about making progressive social change more effective?

A: Yes, it does, but few if any people pay much attention to that research.

Q: Is WhoRulesAmerica.net connected to the site called Who Rules America? on natvan.com?

A: No! That site (and many others with documents purporting to tell you "who rules America") is run by a white supremacist/neo-Nazi organization."

IN ADDENDUM

drawing a historical parallel:

it's the same race, the Gothic breed,
i.e. Triumph of the Will - Nazi Germany &
Triumph of the Will - Us of A

...the eminence and richness of a Reich which has become a superpower.

— German commentator at the opening of a new Reich Chancellery in 1939.

“The Triumph of the Will, Leni Riefenstahl’s famous (or infamous) propaganda tribute to Hitler, memorialized the 1934 rally of the Nazi Party at Nuremberg. It begins with a dramatic, revolutionary moment. The camera is trained on a densely clouded sky. Magical, the clouds suddenly part and a tiny lane glides through. It swoops down, lands and The Leader, in uniform, emerges and strides triumphantly past the salutes of admiring throngs and the party faithful. As the film draws to a close, the camera becomes riveted on a seemingly endless parade, row on row, of uniformed Nazis, shoulder to shoulder, goose-stepping in the flickering torchlight. Even today it leaves an impression of iron determination, of power poised for conquest, of power resolute, mindless, it might wrapped in myth.

On May 1, 2003, in another tightly orchestrated “commentary,” television viewers were given an American version of stern resolve and its embodiment in leaders. A military plane swoops from the sky and lands on an aircraft carrier. The camera creates the illusion of a warship far at sea, symbolizing power unconfined to its native land and able to project itself anywhere in the world. The leader emerges, not as a plain and democratic officeholder, but as one whose symbolic authority is antidemocratic [Bush, Jr.]. He strides resolutely, flight helmet tucked under his arm, outfitted in the gear of a military pilot. Above, the banner “Mission Accomplished.” He salutes a prearranged crowd of uniformed military personnel. Shortly thereafter, swaggering, he reemerges in civilian garb but without discarding the aura of anticivilian authority. He speaks magisterially from the flight deck of the carrier Abraham Lincoln, now cleared with the military carefully ringed about him. He strides alone in the ritual circle expressive of a sacrament of leadership and obedience. They cheer and clap on cue. He invokes the blessing of a higher power. He, too, has promised a triumph of the will:

- * champion aspirations for human dignity;
- * strengthen alliances to defeat global terrorism;
- * defuse regional conflicts:
- * prevent our enemies from threatening us [and] our allies...
with weapons of mass destruction [WMD];
- * ignite a new era of global economic growth;
- * expand the circle of development by opening societies and building the infrastructure of democracy;
- * transform America’s national security institutions.

MEDIA ORCHESTRATED DOCUMENTARIES BY THE ANGLO-SAXON RULING ELITE OF GERMAN ORIGIN...

Fig. 1. President George W. Bush, Jr. with NFO Lt. Ryan Philips, in the flight suit he wore for his controversial televised arrival on the aircraft carrier - USS Abraham Lincoln, May 1, 2003; the Chief executive who never saw a day of active duty in his life, following suit with the scenario once written by the incredible Leni Riefenstahl, a Hitler's favorite who was the de facto civilian minister of Nazi propaganda in the 1930's Germany: TRIUMPH des WILLENS -- TRIUMPH of the WILL, starring Adolph Hitler in the 1935 Nazi propaganda film and, of course, George Walker Bush, Jr. in the American version aboard the aircraft carrier, 47 years later, as incredible as it seems, yet it's true – the same scenario almost half a century later by the same Gothic race, Germanic Americans. . . Likewise, notice the similarity in the language, i.e. German lost out by one vote in the U.S. Congress from becoming the American lingua franca or national language, although the Ruling Elite's or establishment's genetic core, norms and values remain mostly Germanic, period!

Notice, of course, how Obama's orchestration for his debut on the 30,000 more troops to Afghanistan was of course staged at West Point... The pacifist Black American was on the same Bush bandwagon, i.e. "more of the same," completely opposite his presidential campaign platform... Now, we are beyond the fail-safe point of no return, folks!

When Bush, Jr. made the announcement aboard the Lincoln of victory over the Taliban and Al Qaeda he never realized that American blitzkrieg on ancient Babylon sealed the nature of the conflict, which we Americans cannot win, i.e. Unconventional Warfare, a "triumph of the will" was launched by the Arab and Muslim faithful, tactics which will again win over the Anglo-Saxon invaders, the last time over Jerusalem by Saladin some eight centuries ago... I had enlightened the Washington elite in the SAF/AAR Pentagon* weekly publication some two decades ago that it was Unconventional Warfare destined to run over our Conquistadors sooner than later, if we did not change our tactics and invested more in the underdeveloped world instead of exploiting it, indeed, creating and cavorting with local ruling elites behaving à la our own power politics structures; rewarding such nationals with Stateside diplomas, training and power status back home, thereby securing American profits if not rape from those local economies, including transfer of flight capital to our American banks and stock exchanges, of course, including arms sales... Therefrom, the Saudi Ruling elite; please note: 16 of the 19 pilots in 9/11 were in fact Saudis, unconventional warfare replete, eh!

Fig. 2. Homebound aircraft carrier USS Abraham Lincoln returning to homeport in San Diego, California, carrying its displayed propaganda banner - Mission Accomplished, referring to the military conquest of Iraq by our American Armed Forces.

Fig. 3. Triumph of the Will (German: Triumph des Willens) is a propaganda film by the German Nazi filmmaker, our very own Leni Riefenstahl. It chronicles the 1934 Nazi Party Congress in Nuremberg. The film contains excerpts from speeches given by various Nazi leaders at the Congress, including portions of speeches by Adolf Hitler, interspersed with footage of massed party members. Hitler commissioned the film and served as an unofficial executive producer; his name appears in the opening credits; the Führer is in fact the main actor. The overriding theme of the film is the return of Germany as a great power, with Hitler as the True German Leader who will bring glory to the nation.

*See "The Bekka Valley War - 1982" on my private Website—it's the same publication where my editorial appeared on unconventional warfare; I don't recall the date (1982-83), but some 5,000 copies were regularly circulated by the Air Force to the select elite; special issues even up to 50,000 copies.

"Mission Accomplished" was pompously displayed on the control tower of the aircraft carrier USS Abraham Lincoln during a televised address by United States President one more George Bush, Jr. - May 1, 2003. Bush stated at the time that this was the end to major combat operations in Iraq, therefrom the "mission accomplished" cliché, something I was inculcated with in our Siberian operations, and often quoted it in the Cold War trilogy, sometimes cynically. However, if Obama thinks that his Afghan "surge" will end in 18 months, he better take notes from his predecessor, i.e. Iraq is long ways from being a "mission accomplished" almost a decade later; no doubt the next stage is a Taliban-Al Qaeda "surge" in the venerable Mesopotamian river valley that the Romans never managed to conquer. Neither will Pax Americana! Triumph of the Will was released in 1935 and rapidly became one of the better-known examples of propaganda in film history. Riefenstahl's techniques, such as moving cameras, the use of telephoto lenses to create a distorted perspective, aerial photography, closed circuit television, timely delivery by zeppelin of film canisters taken daily at the Olympics, and revolutionary approach to the use of music and cinematography, for example, have earned the Triumph film recognition as one of the greatest films in history. Riefenstahl won several awards, not only in Germany but also in the United States, France, Sweden, and other countries. The film was popular in the Third Reich and elsewhere, and has continued to influence movies, documentaries, and commercials to this day, even as it raises the question over the dividing line between art and morality.

Leni Riefenstahl and Walter Ruttmann, original music by Herbert Windt, cinematography by Sepp Allgeier and Karl Attenberger and Werner Bohne. Fig. 5-6 (left, directly above). Leni Riefenstahl was Hitler's hired hand and master filmmaker. Leni is both wonderful and horrible in Ray Muller's 1993 documentary film, but she was and remains a brethren of the new super-race of man, the Aryan, who survived the Age, the terrible 20th century and is still in charge of the same world, the world war remained a victory by the same genetic cavalcade, i.e. mission accomplished, eh!

Leni is very much alive today and within the racial syndrome or propaganda and warfare tactics practiced today by her brethren at No. 10 Downing St. or 1776 Pennsylvania Ave., if not their very pathfinder for this kind of wartime propaganda, therefore the ability by this--regardless of her Nazi career--remarkable woman to survive the Nuremberg gallows and the Tinsel Town critics; she made films to her very last days, considered the equal of Orson Wells and Alfred Hitchcock which is an incredible feat in itself in view of her background. Had Leni attempted such survival in post-war Soviet Union it would have been impossible, of course, where profiled Nazis would have been unacceptable if not executed or jailed for life such as Vice Fuhrer Rudolf Hess, who died in the Spandau Allied Prison, in Berlin 1987; of course, the Russians refused to amnesty the Nazi no. 2 man, because he was sent by Hitler to stave-off the UK-USA counter-attack until the German mechanized units finished-off the Soviet Union in the winter of 1941. It didn't work; the Russian General Winter, who defeated Napoleon in 1812, won over the unprecedented Nazi armored units, which conquest also lost to winter conditions and Stalin's "iron will" to beat the Nazi war machine, yes, in the dead of the 1943 winter at Stalingrad, eh!

"This morning's opening meeting... was more than a gorgeous show, it also had something of the mysticism and religious fervor of an Easter or Christmas Mass in a great Gothic cathedral, Berlin, 1935." — American reporter and writer, William Shirer, author of the famous volume, The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich (New York: Simon & Schuster), 1960. Shirer was referring to the official opening of the 1936 Olympic Games in Berlin; the capital of Nazi Germany then, and now again, Ok folks, be ware!

Leni Riefenstahl made films for Hitler, but claimed not to have been a Nazi? Above is Albert Speer's Swastika stage for the opening ceremony of the 1936 Berlin Olympics, seating over 100,000 guests. Prior to this only Circus Maximus in the Eternal City could match this 20th century sports stadium, indeed, the classical Romans surpass the seating with 300,000 seats, first time in two millennia. The modern stadium has been copied ever since all over the world, including our Rose Bowl Stadium in Pasadena CA, where I attended the first game on January 1, 1957, when my alma mater University of Iowa won the famous national pennant, plus I attended two more games over the years; the Iowa Hawkeye's were once a real power in the Big 10 college football league... All the paraphernalia sold to game visitors at sports stadiums, such as smoked glass ashtrays, labeled sweatshirts, posters, Olympic circles, Olympic bell, pennants et al, most of it was introduced by Leni... She also introduced cable TV for the first time in the 1936 Berlin Olympics... Leni lived in California in the post-War-II period, but never regained her real status in the film industry as Dr. von Braun did in rocketry; the latter despite the Nazi association and 60,000 victims who died at Nordhausen building his V-2 rocket (see my Website, the story of rocketry, "A Secret Weapon"... She was 101 when she died in 2003, buried in Pocking, Germany. However, Leni left an indelible mark on film-making; I wrote a major piece on her life, partially it can be read on my personal Website (profpaulcutter.com).

Finally, the November 22, 1963 premeditated assassination of JFK was a real tragedy for our nation if not the world; it formalized the posture of worldwide dominance, the comedy it has been ever since, going from bad to worse, from stonewalling to outright destruction of whole societies. If one nation conducts enough comedies, it can change the life beat of the country and fundamentally, the mindset of its plebiscite. But life as comedy can be learned, I guess; as tragedy it can only be assumed. Most men are predominantly one type or the other; an individual's view of life is seldom equally balanced between tragedy and comedy much less of the whole nation. And therefrom the moribund see-saw cavalcade monopolizing Stateside power politics, inevitably inherited for better or worse from the Limey Mother Lode and Jeffersonian elitist democracy, the legitimized-illegitimacy replete!
