

The bald eagle syndrome . . .

I suspect, if the Anglo-Saxon (Yankee & Lymies) belligerence persists with planetary dominance and built-in Aryan, I mean racial right to worldwide leadership of planetary meridians, we still hear in every pronouncement by the US-UK tandem elite, then Russia will have to tow the line between East & West alone, with it's own currency in every respect – financial and cultural – or it could, in fact, co-opt the other two demo-graphic powers (India & China) forming a joint "denga" currency and IMF organism, thereby overnight bankrupting the "dominators" – comprising the Five moribund Gothic Rivers in the West: Hudson, Potomac, Thames, Seine and Rhine; the slippery banks of these belligerents vying for worldwide hegemony, material, cultural and racial dominance, will suddenly find themselves in a Noah well-deserved biblical deluge... Of course, Russia alone in such an Oriental racial and mindset compendium cannot support all the gained WesternCiv progress, hence we face degradation of Greco-Roman civil, civilizing and vertical reach – thus the KT-22 Syndrome and Burdick's "fail safe" point of no return... Nor do I mean to offend the Orient, yet they had all the time in the world to reach the heights of Western technological and socio-economic progress, but it's not in their genes, to say the least; they're copy cats, the creative act is still Caucasian, with the Germanic sub-race of man acquiring at least horizontal intellectual mobility values (e.g., vs. the Russian unique vertical intellectual mobility drive), and crucially physical white cosmetics on their Eurasian transcontinental barbarian trek (riding on the Mongolian pony with Paul Revere) before we re-socialized them... I mean much of it, but for the ingrained aggressive mood, whence deviant behaviorism in domestic and foreign policy, which I once coined Gestalt Hegemony!

Simply underscored: the Germanic aggressive barbarian specie arrived on the continent en masse in AD9, just two millennia ago and, via the 5th column within the ranks of the Roman legions "moled" their way into leadership positions of Imperial Power in the Eternal City, then destroyed it in order to eventually create their own Pax Americana, an illegitimate child of WesternCiv, American statehood per se, as I've often said, is a legitimized-illegitimacy! Even the "brain drain" didn't help (including the 'melting pot' cesspool), nor the unique prosperity now in decline—the system is moribund!

Inevitably, as I watch the passing of the political party baton to the White House pinnacle of power by the incumbent president George Walker Bush, Jr. to his sic replacement-to be, the so-called maverick POW pilot, and Arizona senator, John McCain-cum GOP presidential candidate— how they plan the nation's survival despite the ongoing financial debacle these days, as the campaign nears its indubitable finale—it all reminds me of that chilling poem by Ted Hughes, "Hawk Roosting," in which the dreaded bird sits atop of a tall tree, musing:

"Now I hold all Creation in my foot - I kill as I please because it is all mine - I am going to keep things like this."

Could that bird be the American "bald eagle," eh!?

Of course, it is – a one-year old bald eagle (left), the national symbol of a young prairie nation still in diapers, comparatively speaking vis a vis the community of nations, yet it insists on "leadership" and "rape" of a much more older Orient thereby endangering the Occident and worldwide security, because the pot is calling the kettle black, to say the least, while robbing the world of its resources so that its rich & famous sociopolitical elite [the Social Register up on high – the Higher Powers Hierarchy, the H<sub>2</sub>O or the Shadow Government, with its Manifest Destiny doctrine (1845), to be damned] can live in life styles beyond their means and intellect.

In fact, this baby eagle was fathered by this kind (above) of an Aquila killer with a bald head, the nouveauriche American Goth from Bangladesh, with his claws stretched out to take it all by hook or crook?!

So, there you go, not too hard to grasp some of these facts is it – or not for continentals, in any case, but back in the American "penal landscape," it will be an effort to become enlightened to grasp equality, equity and liberty under a very different sun (notice it on my cap), perhaps, as one "darkie" (Obama) begins to teach the plebiscite, now only in first grade, i.e. sociopolitical change according to the principles and rules of conduct of the real and natural Human Condition!

Bravo!

Go for it – Jim Crow... It did have to come with a bang, though I'm still not sure you will make it?!

The Barbarian in our midst always plays with a stacked deck of cards, I'm afraid... But even as a compromised puppet, just the black color will make all the difference in the world, Ok my friends.

PS:

On June 6, 1982, irreversibly I predicted the American crash on financial markets, hence this Hamlet essay (above) on the 26th anniversary. Moreover, I also wrote how there would be a certain trend towards stability as the presidential election approaches in the fall of 2008, especially on the Wall Street exchange, however with an inescapable rapid decline with the end of the presidential 100 days Honeymoon in Washington, next Spring 2009, reverting to the fate of a regional, even local political, military and economic nation-state. Perhaps with well-deserved all-out incrimination, i.e. if events remain peaceful, international legal measures will follow with inescapable prosecution, liability and reclamation of losses suffered by other nations at the hands of brutal, aggressive and barbarian American wholesale military destruction of foreign lands: including illegal economic sanctions, outright ground, naval and air forces strikes, genocide, occupation and exploitation of natural resources, the belligerence seemingly with no end in sight until the crucial 2008 presidential campaign, with uncertain outcome until next spring?!

Leaving on a mission to Red China, the camel a part of a caravan of 70 such beasts; it was a typical trading, transport caravan, hence a good cover for my operation(s), early 1960s.

The Poseidon nuclear attack submarine (right), perforating the Arctic ice cap in the Laptev Sea by Tiksi, the Soviet strategic naval base in the Arctic, on the recovery mission of yours truly, climbing up the sail of a Poseidon nuclear attack submarine – SSBN 554. This was the scene facing me on the morning of February 27, 1971, as I had completed the MUNA mission. What a site to behold my friends, the sail breaking the torpedoed ice pack hole to pick me up. I was often on such special clandestine missions out in the field, and many times arrived in the theatre of operations in the permafrost regions of the vast Siberian frozen landmass, or recovered exactly this way by nuclear attack subs usually out of Subic Bay, the Philippines; Hokkaido, Japan, or direct from Alaska under the ice pack. Other times we came in by chopper or were dropped in by parachute... Of course, we were also issued various foreign passports and other travel documents, hence as often arriving in Siberia through normal access routes by air, land, or sea, i.e. we had our operational ways and means beyond even Washington's ability to comprehend the nature of the Mirror Doctrine.
