

THE NEW WORLD ORDER ACCORDING TO GOTH!

...the recent illustrated essay vis a vis Dali "revisited"!

THE GEOPOLITICAL CHILD AND THE NEW HUMAN

By

Salvador Dalí; it's his no doubt the best sociopolitical comment underlying the ongoing financial woes on the Financial Markets worldwide, as well as on the transference/rebirth of WesternCiv according to Goth in the far western hemisphere of the Americas, i.e. via the Anglo-Saxon test tube: "It's a bloody mess", the prolific Spaniard commented about the lack of intellectual life in New York, back in 1943, despite the American-British high-tech prowess and acquired Caucasian cosmetics?! He had escaped the wrath of the 1940 Nazi invasion of France, bolting to the U.S.

I knew the surrealist genius once—he was at the presentation of my academic book, Unofficial Art, at Peggy Guggenheim's villa in Florence (1967), then at MONEY in NYC with its director Alfred Bar, and maybe one more time in Greenwich Village, maybe even in Marbella, I don't recall...

Just about everything America—the UK progeny—has accomplished of worldwide value has gone sour, ever since the Mexican-American War of 1845, which birthed the dastardly doctrine of Manifest Destiny, the providential links announced by the newly arrived prairie American Goths from the far-off Orient – the Flatlands of the River Ganges - coming directly from God, who appeared in Gotham City (so they called New York) as a Roman syndrome of rape and mayhem, stealing everything any anything from others, usually of the weak & meek of the Bible.

Even though we admire the Romans, including yours truly, they never worked a day in their lives: everything was based on the slave labor economy, murder and rape on the military expeditions abroad, men & materiel, all the logistics, everything was stolen and brought back to Rome with pomp in a spectacular parades, led by senators or army generals, sometimes the emperor himself. For example, Constantine the Great, who was raised by his Serbian mother, a servant in the Roman military garrison of Naissus (Nish, Southern Serbia), he marched at least twice all the way from England to the Eternal City, showing off his wear and tear brought in from the Celts, Anglos, Saxons, Vikings and other Barbarians occupying the British Isles.

Remember, he was the Emperor who invented the name of the "cross" (hence, Christianity itself) during an AD312 battle on the Melville Bridge, Yorkshire, England... Before that, our church has yet to explain, what our faith was called, and who held all those church councils, if the one by the Serbian Roman Emperor Constantine was the first, the Council of Nicea, held near Izmir, Turkey, AD325. In fact, the first Christians were ONLY dissident Jews in the empire, who rebelled against the puppet San Hedrin (Jewish Holy Synod), which the dissenting sects considered as traitors, working against their own people, and Judaic faith, during the 139-year old Judaic-Roman War of independence at the turn of the Christian era. Of course, there were other dissenting religious sects, most of them pagan, not in tune with the policy of the conquering Romans, but they were not Christian. Indeed, Christianity per se and the name itself of the "cross" was a Constantine invention at the Battle of Melville Bridge, Yorkshire, England, while the First Nicean Council was not a real Christian Council, the so-called Christians being only one of many religious sects, mostly pagan, attending the---let's call it "Peace Conference" held in Nicea (Izmir, Turkey), AD 325, albeit presided over by Emperor Constantine. Most of the church promoted precepts about that so-called first Christian Council is a pure invention by the later fathers of the actual Christian Church, but after AD391, when the Roman Empire East & West legitimized the Church, naming it a "state church", formalized by Emperor Flavius Theodosius I, ordering dissolution of all other sects and paganism in general, including the destruction of pagan monuments.

Moreover, and more in line with our ongoing discussion over the Germanic Barbarian intruder on the continent: whatever is in the domain of Rousseau's General Will of nations it was usurped by the overriding Germanic breed populating the Americas, with its specific genetic code dictating their right to worldwide leadership to "run the show," for it was the Western European north-western crescent which they exclusively populated from the Iberian Peninsula to Scandinavia and on to the British Isles: it is that sub-breed of man emanating from the Flatlands of the Indian River Ganges which has been in charge (at least in the Western Hemisphere of the Americas), ever since the discovery of the Americas in 1492 (two years after we Montenegrins published the first book in the Cyrillic alphabet on an albeit Guttenberg printing press by the Slavs), it is that lot and its social engineering elite, which is still vying for overall Earthly power or at least until one 'darkie' showed up on the scene and suddenly stole the show in the presidential Primaries, the senator from Illinois – Barack Obama...

His platform of CHANGE has eclipsed the national meridians from Hollywood to Maine in the East, Canadian border in the North down to the Gulf of Mexico in the South!

If the East Coast Ruling Elite affects the process in any way (and, they will no doubt about it—the in-grained genetic aggression!), it will end up in a Civil War, spearheaded by Tinsel Town, to say the least, and still the elite will have to face the youthful cavalcade, which hardly cares about Obama's shades of color...

The surrealist, Salvador Dali (above), a real creative, perceptive genius: picturing the above painful transference and birth of new breed from the old continent (Europe) to the Americas...what a bloody mess, eh!?

A 200-year old nation-state slapped together out there in the prairie is now vying for total control of planetary meridians, while ancient civilizations suffer from the baby cudgel, the hell fire and brimstone from the providential God of Manifest Destiny (AD1845), the USAF (backed by RAF): Babylonia, Syria, Persia, Egypt (until recently), Palestine, China and so on... Indeed, how much intelligence does it take to understand such a concept?

The pot calling the kettle black, as the old adage says: barely in diapers, two-centuries old America is claiming worldwide leadership ignoring Russia, which inherited the Greco-Roman Empire (AD1493), China, India, Persia, Babylonia (hanging its president, just for the 'ell of it by George Bush Jr. and Tony Blair), a sovereign nation of Babylonia which emerged when Hammurabi (fl. ca. 1728 – 1686 BC, who created an empire out of the territories of the former kingdoms of Sumer and Akkad and struck his legal code in lasting granite stone!

Surely generations of civilized men will condemn this vile act of Western barbarianism, instead of playing in their own sandbox, they continue visiting their assumed empire-building rites on those who cannot defend themselves or their natural resources... I'm saddened by the helplessness and weakness of smaller nations and societies to condemn and punish such vile acts of foreign conquest and intervention, when the character and behavior of its leaders (e.g. of one Iraq) is, after all, an internal problem of a sovereign nation?!?!)

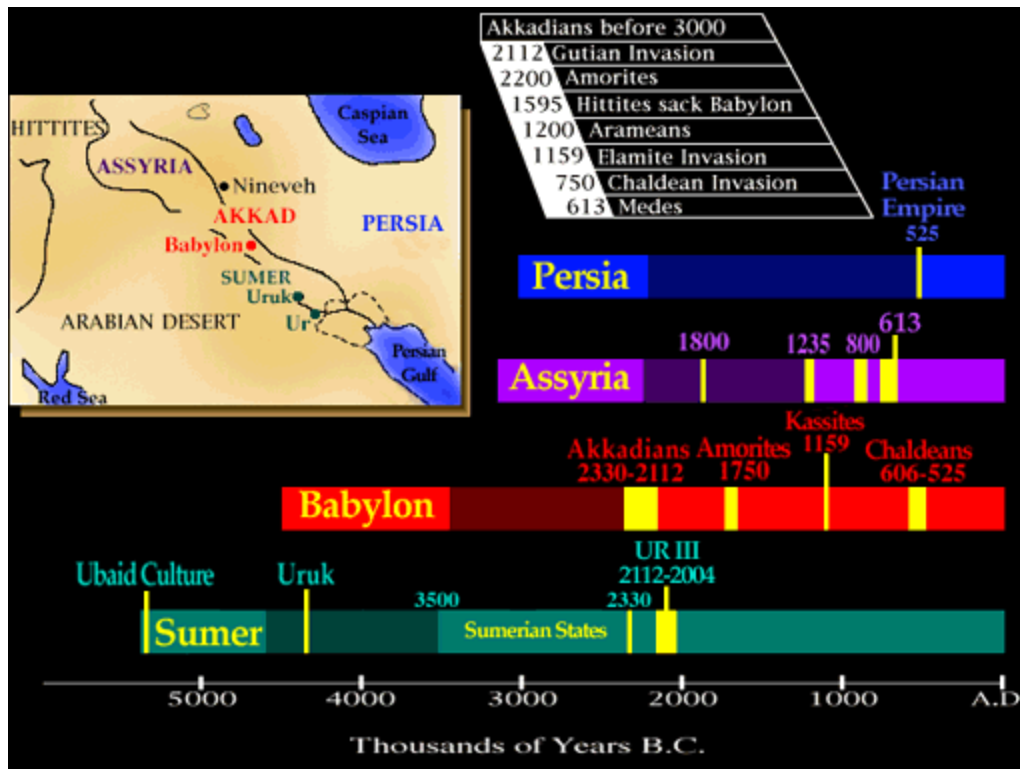

Fig. 2. Map showing the Babylonian territory upon Hammurabi's ascension in c.1792 BC and upon his death in c. 1750 BC...

Can you imagine, the last emperor of the Babylonian peoples was hung by the Barbarian late comers to the continent of Europe, the Germanic/Teutonic Brits, and its progeny, the Americans? Is anyone conscious enough in WesternCiv to realize what the two popularly elected heads of state did in Baghdad last year – Tony Blair and George Bush, Jr. – hanging the last imperial head of state of Akkad, Summer and Babylon, going back five millennia vis a vis 2-centuries old nation-state, the USofA. It's unheard of in the annals of civilized WesternCiv, of course, with those two barbarians do in fact carrying aggressive Oriental deviant genes, for the northwestern European crescent is populated by the Germanic breed arriving from Asia just two millennia ago..., including the Spanish (Vandals), the French (Franks), the Germans [(Allemagne, some 20-30 sub clans, speaking the Teuton primitive tongue, which birthed the nevertheless very prolific English language, of course, plagiarized (like everything else) by this barbarian Grand Assimilator of everything and anything they could grab, rape, butcher, steal and take along on the transcontinental Eurasian trek from Bangladesh to Western Europe and the Americas], Dutch, Danes, Scandinavians, Brits (and all its dominations, including the assimilated Celts), plus, of course, the dominions in the Americas, Australia, New Zealand, et al—all of them are Oriental Germans, Goths, Max Weber's Protestant Capitalists.

Please take note: not one non-German racial type in America has ever-Never been a U.S.A. President outside of their faith and genetic strain (but, for the Irishman and one of their own, my friend, Pres. John Kennedy, who was a Catholic, and paid for it with his life!), not a single other nationality or race ever occupied the White House for over 200 years of the nation-state's existence, hence... will Obama, the unlikeliest of all other races and foreign breeds?

I doubt it...the ruling elite will take corrective steps and remove the non-inner sanctum racial and cultural threat to the Gothic Bastion on the Hudson and Potomac Rivers in the Americas, Themes, Seine and Rhine on the continent, i.e. the Five Gothic Rivers in the West, which make up the enclave of the aggressive Germanic breed in our midst vying for worldwide dominance, despite their arrival on the continent of Europe, just two thousand years ago, now toeing the thin line of to be or not to be just to achieve the twisted, deviant, genetically in-grained Barbaric goal to rule over the Hominid World, genetically implanted within the behavioral mode of this aggressive Oriental breed, acquired culture along the Eurasian trek riding on the Mongolian pony (with Paul Revere), leaving behind a bloody mess, from its birth to eternity, no doubt until we more literate citizens of the world take up arms against their lot and remove them from positions of power gained illegitimately by force.

<<< Fig. 3. The Deluge tablet of the Gilgamesh epic in Akkadian cuneiform script. Hammurabi's code is almost 5 times older than Magna Carta (AD1215), of our Mother Lode – the British Isles.

And it is this Anglo-Saxon cavalcade which has been ever since ruthlessly and murderously running over the planetary meridians, in fact, since 9 AD, when this aggressive Barbarian first arrived en masse on the banks of the rivers Danube and Rhine populating the Black Forests of Germany. . .

The same continental settlers also brought the horse to the Americas never seen before by the American Indian, even though the Equestrian specie became the part and parcel of the Wild Man's arms in trade against the encroaching White Man; we Americans brutally eliminated 8 million native Indians. Par for the course, eh!

Can we imagine nowadays, this late in the history of Western Civ, the great Macedonian general and leader of the civilized world said: "This attack on Persia is final., there will be no more wars in the history of the world!" - Speech at Gaugemala, 331 BC

Since then, there have been at least 6,000 major world!~

The history of the epic is divided into two periods: old, and late. Many versions exist from this almost 2,050 year span, but only the old and the late periods have yielded significant enough finds to enable a coherent intro-translation. Therefore, the old Sumerian version, and a later Akkadian version, which is now referred to as the standard edition, are the most frequently utilized texts. The standard edition has become the basis of modern translations, and the old version only supplements the standard version when the lacunae - or gaps in the cuneiform tablet - are great.

The earliest Sumerian versions of the epic date from as early as the Third Dynasty of Ur (2150-2000 BC) (Dalley 1989: 41-42). The earliest Akkadian versions are dated to the early second millennium (Dalley 1989: 45). The "standard" Akkadian version, consisting of twelve tablets, was edited by Sin-liqe-unninni sometime between 1300 and 1000 BC and was found in the library of Ashurbanipal in Nineveh.

The famous story of the Great Flood is best known from the Bible (Genesis 6-9) and the Babylonian Epic of Gilgamesh (Tablet XI, discovered 1872).
