

WesternCiv pathos, to be or not to be!

By Prof. Paul S. Cutter

The WesternCiv Parade of Greats is herewith before you, men and women who influenced the rise of the Greco-Roman civilization, including those genies writing Judeo-Christianity into a belief system, creating a religion which found God in the Sistine Chapel Vatican (the Maker breathing life into Adam by Michelangelo), thereby giving birth to the incredible Renaissance, science & technology—all those technological innovations, suddenly advancing progress beyond the very imagination of man himself; man the tool-maker, awarded with punctuated equilibria (a giant leap forward), entrusting his soul to god, which freed his hands to create the technological wonders of this new world of science and technology almost exclusively in the West.

Fig. 1. The Creation of Adam exquisitely depicts the transcendental phenomenon or unity between the human body and soul. This genial work of art was executed by Michelangelo Buonarroti (c. 1511) on the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel (130' 6" x 43' 5"), Vatican City, Rome. Notice the fatherly power of God, his body stretched out to its full majesty and might, which is in perfect contrast to the humble longing of Adam, who is about to be graced with a soul through the splendor of God's cosmic touch.

In conceiving this gesture between Adam and God and the biogenic force that flows through space between the two outstretched hands of Man and his Maker, the artist revealed his great intellectual ability to re-imagine an old biblical subject, creating in this intimate space a gesture of such living power that it serves as the focal point of the entire religious ceiling, marking the beginning of the New Era for the Hominid; having found God, the soul fulfilled, the event launched Western science & technology into earnest development: with spiritual life secured, the hands were freed to create scientific wonders with which we're still enthralled, engaged in high-tech and cyberspace, en route to greater achievements, being on the leading edge of perceptive and prolific new scientific discoveries. Hopefully, we shall overcome the hereto persistent game of conflict & resolution played by our Ruling Elites in the Occident...

Meanwhile, in the Orient, our yellow race brethren kept the hands idle stuck between their thighs in traditional meditation, lethargy, parasitism, and subservience, hence the disparity in scientific advances and quality of daily life, the difference between perennial poverty and modern progress. . . No offense intended, the conclusion is based on deductive historical analysis of anthropology, migrations, racial assimilation, acculturation, intellectual prowess and scientific verity of the western vertical mind and its creative act, geopolitically stretching from the Russian Urals in the East to the British Isles in the West... No, I'm not a geneticist, but there's a job for that science if allowed to pursue it scientifically without the usual downside enforced by the elite. However, I challenge the geneticists to take another look... Indeed, over 20 major disciplines have been corrupted especially in the humanities, monopolized by the elite, changed or falsified to legitimize its existence, hence need to be rewritten... Nor is this commentary a racial slur or a pointless counter-attack à la the Nazis pseudo-vengeful act of wunderwaffen (1943), but an honest effort to create a vociferous forum, which could make a profiled difference for an all-inclusive, fundamental, germinating local functional autonomy New World Order of smaller nations, supervised by a Supreme Council of Elders mutually appointed by a planetary Commonwealth of Nations.

While "discoverers", on the other hand, plying the high seas found new continents to exploit the natural resources for our own benefit, fostering new nation-states, tempering humanities per se as a social science, and thus enhanced the rise itself of democracy as a viable political system of governance to regulate the affairs of man and society generally in the West.

Inevitably, such a process developed a host of philosophies not the least including the wisdom and contemplation of the Oriental mind, however keeping the creative act within the framework of Occidental practicality and dexterity, away from Oriental despotism, communal life and common property of the East. Thereby, developing equity, equality, property and liberty within the framework of private ownership, hence the rise of capitalism as a motivating instrument to reward and better the Human Condition of man, the individual, applying his ability to better himself first, advancing his own lot, providing security for the nuclear family, then for the community and nation-state. Consequently, society in general benefiting from each autonomous individual, away from Oriental despotism and archaic systems of elitism and tiered classes, castes and conclaves of legitimized exploiters... However, greed, aggression and genetically built-in adverse behavioral norms and values crept in after 1898 (Spanish-American War, and the Sherman Anti-Trust Acts), and ruined the formula and the legacy of the First American Constitutional Republic (1787-1898).

This approach to social organization in the Orient left those societies and nations wide-open to colonialism and empire-building from the West, quickly turning over of capital, gaining wealth and prosperity at the cost of the weak and meek, which has thrown global meridians in such chaos, turmoil and disparity between the rich and the poor, and conflict on a global scale which persists to this day.

YET, these men of knowledge, wisdom and progress, in the West at least, generally speaking were not only exploiters, dictators and totalitarians for their own benefit, ends and means, though there were exceptions, but more often than not brought with them social change, knowledge, democracy and progress to those lands which were imperially conquered, encircled and contained, i.e. the prime example of the lasting British Empire (for centuries, now its dominions lost), left behind intrinsic social values of Western progress.

The discoverers of the Americas, and the exodus to populate the New World, the creation of democracy in the American prairie did give rise and hope to something new under the sun; indeed, the American First Republic from 1787 to 1898, up to the Spanish-American War (1898) in the Caribbean and the Philippines, the first 111 years were exemplary in the history of WesternCiv.

However, American Manifest Destiny Doctrine, the right to take by force territories and property "from Coast to Coast", steamrolled over the territories acquired by Mexico, Spain, France and especially England (clichéd during the Mexican-American War of 1845); coming from Providence, they said, threw a monkey wrench into the formula of the so-called Jeffersonian Democracy, and we Americans soon became a new breed of elitist conquerors, empire-builders and exploiters, enhanced by the experience of both World Wars, including the Cold War, where we were the prime victors, and "winner takes all," with that "fudge factor" corrective formula built-in in our political system, presto, perhaps unwittingly by coincidence and practical decision-making on the spot (because the Anglo-Saxon is not that smart to be so conspiratorial and futuristic) turned Washington into a "dominator" (tutored along the way by London from the Mother Lode – England). Consequently, we American became a new breed of high-tech exploiters, enhanced by information gathering software (the spysat platforms in orbit), hell bent on dominance of planetary meridians—that's why we insist on the self-assumed right to Worldwide Leadership by America, the 200-year old nation-state still in dippers vis a vis such old nations as China, India, Egypt, Syria, Iraq, Iran, Korea and even Russia (the latter, got its start in the 9th century AD).

To be sure "black gold" – petroleum – is a commodity, suddenly, beyond itself, and just as important to Washington now as it was to Berlin in 1941, for without energy to feed the internal combustion engine glut of military, commercial and industrial equipment, as well as private vehicles, drives us "Jeffersonian democrats" to take it all by hook or crook... You got it: from the Arabs, hence the War on Islam, the War of the Worlds, the sociopolitical and military morass we're now engaged in—in the Middle East, and elsewhere, and there's no end to it in sight, with the conservative Republicans still vying for power in the White House.

The other "black gold", one African Black senator, Barack Obama, almost sitting behind the Oval Desk, has announced CHANGE and pull-out from the imperial dominions controlled by the same Republic on the slippery banks of the Hudson and Potomac rivers... It sure looks promising for that sudden political option in American politics, and there's the ready-made plebiscite (the young, the unemployed, the overtaxed Middle Class, en masse Hollywood support, the Intelligentsia and some VIP politicians), but what if the progressive Black candidate is side-stepped by the Shadow Government, stonewalled to death, even murdered (god forbid)... But who knows what the Langley "grays" might do in Time of Troubles? Civil War? Unlikely, our plebiscite has been so neutralized beyond reaction, the most docile and apathetic society in the modern world!

Even the domino effect worldwide, the Fall of Rome in AD469 on the Tiber, re-enacted on the Potomac, Hudson, Thames, Seine, and Rhine, in that order—with raging Hot War on the table or in action – in Palestine, Syria, Iraq, Afghanistan, Iran, Pakistan and even Korea...War is the name of the game—it's always profitable for the Anglo-Saxon ruling elite, plus it drives fear in opposition, the weak and meek of the Bible..., therefrom exploitation becomes profitable!

What will the other super power do – Russia? Who knows? Join the EC, and cut-off the Yankee-Limey tandem at the English Channel: "Let 'em swim in their own soup"...

Toeing the thin line between war and peace, democratic success or totalitarian disaster 'revisited', it's difficult to say, though the country is unimaginably rich in natural resources, and intellectually endowed vertical Western race of man (Caucasians), who confirmed the creative act of the West with their own inventiveness and Christian religion, unique soul and godspoke, before and now after the dastardly "communist" ideology infusion from the West, prosecuted by its own Jewish Diaspora; Russia thereby becoming the historical Jewish "Promised Land" for a period of time during Tatar-Jewish genetic origin Lenin's tenure of the Jewish "Bolshevik Revolution" in the 1920's.¹

YET, Russia may have to do it alone, or co-opt India and Red China in the new International Monetary Fund (IMF) putsch (vis a vis the West), which would water-down the cultural cosmic forces supporting WesternCiv, the above parade of great men and women, its norms and values dissipating in time to the pedestrian level of EasternCiv... There is difference not only in mentality and mindset but in vertical intellectual mobility reach generally vs. horizontal intellectual mobility: Occidental class upmanship and classy behavior vs. Oriental communal awareness or collective pedestrian consciousness within the caste structure, i.e. the rabble society prevails in Asia while in the West we opted for science and technology, division of labor into professional and working classes nomenclatures; on the one hand, a society of free men, equity equality and classless norms and values is unfortunately perhaps far off into the future.

Alone, in my opinion, Russia cannot carry the full burden of peacefully fielding Western democracy in Asia! Of course NOT, nor has America been able to achieve it by force, mayhem and killing fields in Indochina, Afghanistan and Iraq, not even in Palestine, with Israeli help?!

BUT one thing is for sure, the illustrated Parade of Greats (mind you, often in "living film color" of Tinsel Town fame), with few exceptions, would never approve of this final act and Decline of the West, caused by a compendium of nincompoops on the Potomac and Thames, the Gothic empire-builders from Bangladesh, comprising the barbaric Germanic sub-breed of man... For it's the Northwestern European Crescent,² including the New Territories in the Americas and the Pacific, where these atavists live, who have brought us to this point of disaster, despite resocialization of the barbarian on the continent, the infused creative act and implemented science and technology, created by the well-earned wisdom in the acculturation process of the above learned parade of men and women, by and large 'virtuosic' people, most of whom were intrinsically against War!

The Oriental Goth, or Tatar-Mongolian from the flatlands of the River Ganges, as I have often underscored, arriving in the West just two millennia ago, defeating the Romans at the barbarian frontier on the Rhine and Danube, AD9, settled on the continent permanently, which was alright with the Romans, who co-opted the atavist first in the ranks of the military then within the society and political life itself, where the so-called "barracks emperors" even ran the empire – Pax Romana. However, the Imperial leadership never expected the eclipse of the Eternal City and destruction of its empire, from the Oriental or Germanic barbarian within. But it happened; a New World Order according to Goth was in the making, facilitated by the 5th column from within and the demographic Germanic bulge from without.

"Poof goes the weasel," Rome collapsed in AD469, or 475AD, whichever...never to be reconstituted, but by the same Germanic progeny in the West, in the Americas, in the name of Rome, and Roman trained "self-assumed right to leadership of planetary meridians," it seems, ever since the Fall of Rome, with the Prairie democracy coming into its own once it broke-off from Mother Lode - England, the British Commonwealth, during the American Revolution, thereafter systematically involved in its own empire-building, which came of Age during WW-I, perhaps egged on with first major success – completing the Panama Canal and, of course, WW-II. It's just that no one needed the Cold War but for the ingrained aggressive mindset of the breed from Asia.

Of course, the putsch was struck by "Teddy Bear" Roosevelt in the malaria-infested marshes of the Panama Canal, its completion rescued by U.S. from the defunct French Panama Canal Company in 1904, introducing "military medicine," by the Surgeon General of the United States, the military medical officer still in charge of public health Stateside, solving the malaria problem, launching America into a position of worldwide political-military power supremacy. However, democracy per se ended with 1898 American-Spanish War in the Philippines and the first Anti-Trust acts.

Hence, we have felt the pressure and dominance excesses ever since 1898 by the American horizontal, cold-blooded, aggressive, and greedy barbarian Ruling Elite running domestic, and foreign policy!

²The northwestern European crescent is populated by the Germanic breed arriving from Asia just two millennia ago..., including the Spanish (Vandals), the French (Franks), the Germans [(Allemagne, some 20-30 sub clans, speaking the Teuton primitive tongue, which birthed the nevertheless very prolific and expressively and scientifically rich English language, of course, plagiarized (like everything else) by this barbarian Grand Assimilator(s) of all times, everything and anything they could grab, rape, butcher, steal and take along on the transcontinental Eurasian trek West, all the way from Bangladesh to Western Europe and on to the Americas], Dutch, Danes, Scandinavians, Brits (and all its dominations, including the assimilated Celts), plus, of course, the colonial territories in the Americas, Australia, and New Zealand—most of them are Oriental Germans, Goths, i.e. Max Weber's Protestant Capitalists.

Therefore, as I wrote recently, in one of my typical analyses of politics-West, to be or not to be, that is the question..., with all the ramifications there-in posited. In fact, at least one rambling essay attached, and there were several such critical enclosures forwarded recently to you all...

I worry about the survival of WesternCiv in the hands of the gothic-Germanic tandem (British Lymies and us Yankees), as well as the input by the sometimes byzantine proto-Slavic Russian--with that uncompromising Oriental mindset twitch filtering (by osmosis) into the continental nation over the Urals Cordillera, which is unfortunately inevitable within the Asian mindset of Oriental despotism.

Will the implanted wisdom and reason imbued by those Greats (above) override the imbecilic tandem's dominance plans, it's difficult to predict, for they're hell bent on destruction via hegemony, globalization, aggrandizement and built-in, genetic aggression to have their way and domination of planetary meridians (exactly, what Hitler, Napoleon, Frederick the Great, Wilhelm Kaiser wanted) and others of their mood and origin and racial whims, just for the hell of it, albeit lebensraum was important to the Germans! Behavioral deviance and lack of acumen in political affairs of modern man, in the hands of the wisdomless elite left at will to fulfill its savage drive in search for unbridled political power over other fellow men, why it's pure, unadulterated, in-grained hegemony coined by the ancient Greeks.

The prospects look grim from this vantage point of observation and geopolitical contemplation on the old continent; we're head-on deep in conflict with Islam, racism at home and abroad, and economic woes, from which it's hard to see the way out, when expertise teaches us observers otherwise, especially when the belligerent subject continues to posture, positing the same defunct solutions be it over the demise on the financial markets, the war abroad, and generally behaving as if nothing has happened, offering asinine band-aids as policy solutions, when the light of recovery at the other end of the sociopolitical, military and economic tunnel remains in pitch darkness as current events get worse by the day... I hope I'm wrong; all of our professional visions and calculated forecasts run-amiss:

Otherwise, my 26-year old prediction for the 2008 rapid demise of Pax Americana will carry its weight of civil disorder, high-tech abuse in conflict; hence civilization as we know it could plunge into irreversible decline.

The Human Condition and the Hominid race of Man is confronted by the worst danger ever faced as human, and humane occupants of this planet Earth; the lease on land by the Landlord, the Maker, may well be cancelled by the end of next Spring – 2009!

Of the twenty-two civilizations that have appeared in history, nineteen of them collapsed when they reached the moral state the United States is in now. – Arnold Toynbee

PS. If Obama occupies the Executive Mansion in January, avoids becoming a puppet of the Ruling Elite, unilaterally removing our military forces from foreign occupation, and quickly (if that's possible anymore) balances the national budget, revamping the federal Treasury bookkeeping, freezing the reserves at Ft. Knox, taxing the rich and famous, hence curtailing their life styles, maybe there's a chance... I hope so, honestly, but I don't see it from this vantage point of review and analysis of sociopolitical and economic events, with the military-industrial complex rumbling and grumbling, i.e. the flailing financial markets are in deep trouble?!

ONLY resources-rich Russia could save the show, if they would, but I'm not sure they're ready to commit Siberian raw material wealth on such asinine Anglo-Saxon frills and thrills in wayward foreign experiments, the old traditional religious and recent political enemy, even if the Russkies knew how to do it timely enough to save the moribund show? Therefore, the Alexander the Great's syndrome, offending the Oracle at Siva, dying in Baghdad, the sacred cradle of civilization, for his sins in excessive warfare and adventure abroad, just as we Americans shall no doubt face the providential tribunal, for never realizing the difference between the sacred and the profane...

(Alexander or Athene)

YUP, meeting the wrath of our Maker on the formidable, reinforced river banks of the historical Tigris and Euphrates Rivers of ancient Mesopotamia, where ancient myth and offended bloodlines shall take their revenge!

Can we imagine nowadays, this late in the history of WesternCiv, what the great Macedonian general and leader of the civilized world said: "This attack on Persia is final..., there will be no more wars in the history of the world!" - Speech at Gaugamala, 331 BC

Since then, there have been at least 6,000 major world wars! ~

Civilizations in decline are consistently characterized by a tendency towards standardization and uniformity. – Arnold Toynbee [Therefrom, the wholesale "apathy" by the American plebiscite. –PSC]

Civilization is a movement and not a condition, a voyage and not a harbor.
– Arnold Toynbee

Fortress America based on the foundation of Gotham City (New York City's original name, strategically located on the Hudson river by the British national Goths originating from the flatlands of the river Ganges, i.e. Bangladesh) is ONLY a harbor, with a branch river port on the Potomac, both of which are stopovers for the Mongolian "drifter" (Goth), still tutored by the Mother Lode on the slippery banks of the continental River Themes... This nomadic breed's Pax Americana is moribund because of in-grained genetic impurities—hence, deviance—behavioral stupidity, greed and aggression, barbarian behavior in a modern world they helped to build after we, the WesternCiv, attempted at their re-socialization. NOW it's a matter of hopeless recidivism, or relapse to atavism, it seems, which We cannot correct with education, acculturation, peaceful forms of example, when the Ruling Elite reacts to everything civil, human and humane of this world with force—USAF/RAF, implemented by the GEO wholesale bombing Doctrine (1996), ground and naval forces, hegemony and dominance "on rampage," replete!

The reason why elitist Jeffersonian Democracy survived so long is based on Prof. Sheldon S. Wolin's astute insight in recently describing the "specter of inverted totalitarianism" (2008 pub.). The typical classical totalitarianism exercises power from the top down of the political power pyramid, issuing irreversible directives, while the Jeffersonian model, evidently learned by the 2 x 4 method of trial and error out in the prairie discovered that the best way to operate the transmission belts of sheer power is if the directives run from the plebian base up the pyramid, whose apex is in the hands of the higher powers hierarchy – the Shadow Government and its military-industrial complex, thereby hiding the sharp teeth of the ruling elite and the H₂O claws of the bald eagle, the democratic myth shadowing a 'crass' democrassy, the judicial and policing arm of administering "real and present" control... Therefrom the real and present danger of perverted totalitarianism, the perfidy and fraud dished out to the unaware domestic plebiscite and on into the international arena of politics. Consequently, much older and just as productive and technologically advanced continental nations have been bamboozled into believing in Washington's progressiveness, while still occupying allied national territories with heavy-handed armed forces including the enforced, aggressive NATO infrastructure legitimizing American empire building!

Perhaps the pen is more powerful than the sword, eh!
